Throughout many years of teaching, Mrs. Frances Coon has dispersed her friendly smile to all who encountered her company. Under her sponsorship, the Future Teachers of America and the National Honor Society were introduced to students. As a math instructor and individual, Mrs. Coon has become an encouraging friend who has inspired students to do their best, despite the situation. To many, a window has been opened through the concern of Mrs. Coon.

This is the property of Aleck B. Connell. (One of the 3 Classy class sisters) Us class sisters will always stick together no matter what. Even though Myrtle is leaving us our friendships won't. She'll still be around to share the boogie, boys & good times. Us "Classy" peeps gotta stick together always. (Safty in numbers, 3 numbers!!!)

Class sisters 4 ever!!!

Administrators Lead Progress

Constantly changing concepts demand the educational process to become more progressive and dynamic. Active concern for the needs of the individual was displayed through the efforts of Superintendent Julius Truelson and the Fort Worth School Board members. Directing the faculty staff and student body this year was Principal P. B. Stovall. New at WHHS was Mr. Bob Lee, who helped in enforcing school policy along with Mrs. Frances Alles and Mr. Carl Robinson.

Office Staff Helps Faculty, Students

Handling schedules, computer sheets, transcripts, and report cards for 2315 students was just part of the hard work done by the office staff at Western Hills. Mrs. Billie Prince and Mrs. Bessie Thomas were the secretaries in the main office. In a new position as registrar this year was Mrs. Barbara Blanks and Mrs. Madge Prince who handled data processing. In charge of the attendance office were Mrs. Sallie Carter and Mrs. Gladys Wallace.

Concerned with the schedules and future plans of students were counselors Mrs. Ann Bradley, Mrs. Kathryn Edwards, Mr. Bill Polson, and Mrs. Mary Webb. New to the faculty staff were community aides Mr. James Brock, Mr. David Erskine, Mr. James Thomason, and Mrs. Margaret Wilder. Returning to the school were peer advisors Mr. Danny Butler and Miss Marietta Miller. In charge of the library and its facilities were Mrs. Peggy Herring and Mrs. Hazel Craig. Mrs. Frances Lipscomb was new at WHHS this term as school nurse.

Bridging The Communication Gap

Tackling the gap of communication is imperative in order for one to express to another his ideas. Mrs. Marjorie Buhl, Mrs. Winifred Elliot, Mrs. Jan Guess, and Mrs. Kaymarie McNerney taught this importance to their students along with the other English teachers. Many teachers were involved in organizations outside the English department. Mr. Gerald McCombs completed his second year of aviation, a growing interest in Western Hills. Journalism and Annual Staff were sponsored by Mrs. Melba Jackson and Mr. Eric Mann, respectively, while Mrs. Odessa Coultas continued her work as sponsor of the student council.

English Department Largest on Campus

With the growth of a student body, the faculty must expand to keep up with the demand for education. Different concepts are also evolved. Reading was introduced for the first time this year by Mrs. Carole Yarborough and aid, Mrs. Kay Nelson. Other new faces in the department included Mrs. Bessie Greene, Mrs. Mary Hart, and Mrs. Johanna Pitts. Returning to Western Hills to share their ideas in grammar and literature were Mrs. Bettye Gomez, Mrs. Karen Noel, and Mrs. Linda Prevost.

New Dimensions Discovered

Introduced to the various operations in algebra, students could progress to the more complex operations in calculus. Mrs. Mary Barron taught calculus and Mr. Neil Boyd, computer math. Instructing students in intermediate mathematics were Mrs. Frances Coon, Mrs. Melva Ezell, Mr. Andrew Henderson, Mr. Edwin Kahler, Mr. Claude Little, Mrs. Maurine Mullins, Mrs. Winifred Taylor, Mrs. Martha Wilkerson, Mrs. Imogene Williamson, and Mrs. Dolores Wright.

Experiments In

Exploring the universe and seeking the answers to natural questions provided the incentive for the science department this year. Two new members, Mrs. Marsha Henton, and Mr. Joe Coulson added their knowledge to the science staff. Experimenting with new teaching techniques utilizing two instructional aides and a college format, Mr. Barron Pressley taught first year Biology. Mrs. Ruth Amend, Mr. Robert Dixon, and Mr. Joe Coulson also taught first year Biology classes. Mrs. Marsha Henton, Mrs. Gwen Rogers, Mr. Lloyd Seely, and Mr. George Sutton taught General Physical Science. Mrs. Sharland Kirkpatrick taught General Physical Science and Physics. Mrs. Mary Lacy was the only Chemistry teacher.

Discovering Our Talents

Retaining individualism in their talent while at the same time learning to function together; students combine ideas with the end result, a product of imagination and interpretation. This was accomplished in the fine arts division. Mr. Ed Curry as head of the art department, guides the talents of his students in experimenting with new concepts including jewelry and sculpture.

Willing to share her knowledge of the theater, and provide constructive criticism is Mrs. Juanita McCullough, (below) head of the speech and drama department. Mrs. Jewell Kelly leads the voices of W.H.H.S. in the school choir along with her chorus classes.

The intermediate and advanced bands, directed by Mr. Jerry Jones, provided music for several school programs including half time entertainment at the football games.

Extending Our Horizons

Exposing the individual to the various languages and cultures of different countries expresses a purpose of studying a foreign language. For the first time at Western Hills, Russian was offered and taught by Mrs. Rebecca Stevenson. Teaching the additional languages were Mrs. Carol Absher, Mrs. Brigitta Brandt, Miss Mary Rehm, Mrs. Carol Roberts, Mrs. Rebecca Tyndall, and Mrs. Mildred Washington.

Examining Man's Motives

Giving the students an insight into the past of man was the task of the Social Studies Department. Miss Donna Grigsby, formerly of the English Department, taught world history this year. New additions to the department were Mr. Charles Hall and Mr. James Thames. Instructing students in various history courses, were Mr. W. B. Cole, Mr. David Helbing, Mr. Ronnie McClain, Mrs. Candice Metcalf, Mrs. Dorothy Niesen, and Mr. Leo Perkins. Mr. Tom Strother taught government.

Industrial Arts: Vocational Foundation

Encouraging students to learn the skills necessary to prepare for a later vocation, the Industrial Arts department held classes in wood and metal shop, drafting, power mechanics, electricity, and plastics. Mr. Jack Bishop, Mr. Bill Mazy, and Mr. Don Smith welcomed Mr. Larry Duker to the department.

Mrs. Mary Lynn Foust
Mr. Tom Park

Students of Western Hills were given the opportunity to gain experience in business skills under the guidance of the Business Department. Typing instructors Mrs. Melva Houston and Mrs. Bobbie Leggett guided students into developing basic typing skills. Miss Mary Monarch served as shorthand teacher while Mrs. Julia Baker instructed her students in accounting. Instructing the General Arithmetic and Business courses was Mr. Riley Dunn.

Credit was given to students for their job experience as part of the courses taught by Mr. Ulysses Cox and Mr. Tom Park. Distributive Education was taught by Mr. Park and Mr. Cox was the instructor for Industrial Cooperative Training. Vocational Office Education, taught by Mrs. Mary Lynn Foust, provided students with an opportunity to learn about office skills and machines.

Council Strives For Unity

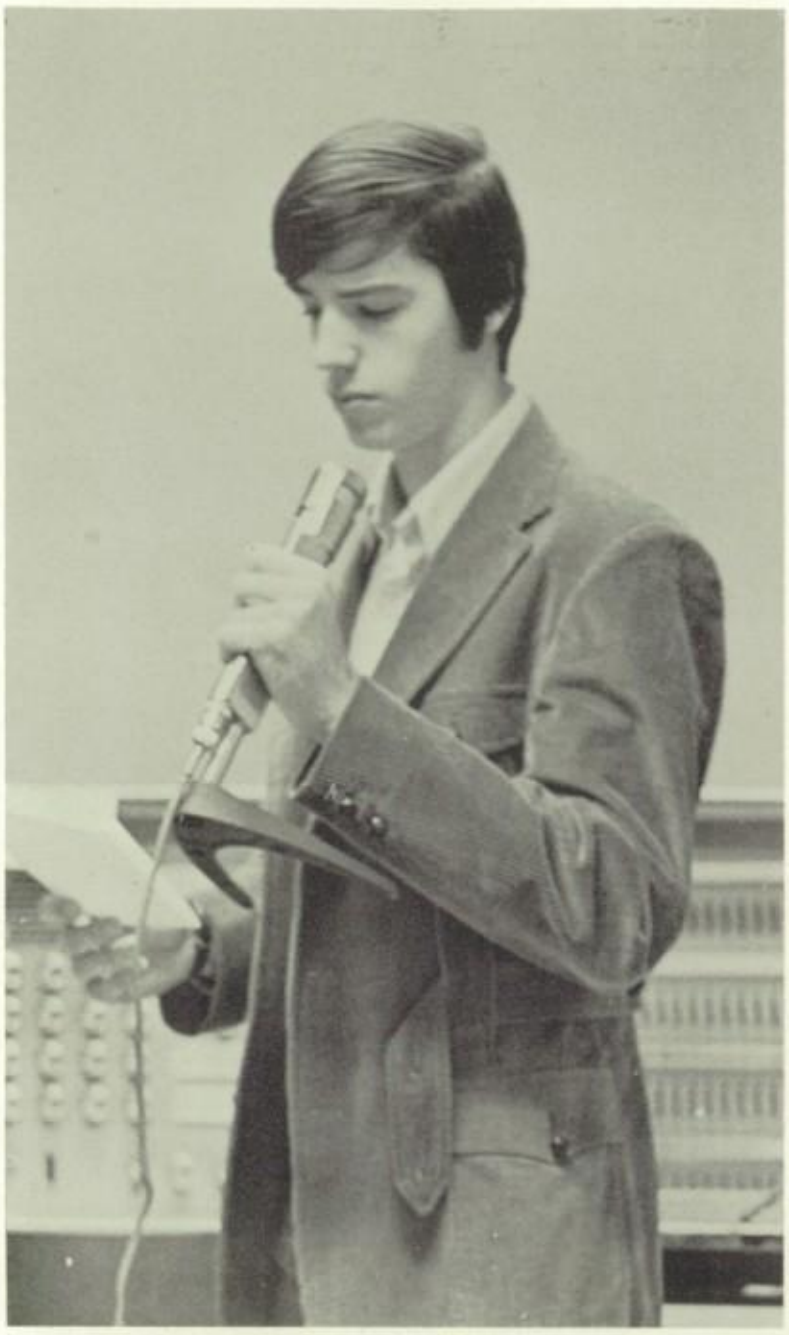
TOP: The student council held meetings the first Tuesday of each month.
ABOVE: Vice-President Wesley Anderson is in charge of the council in the absence of the president.
RIGHT: As secretary of the council Sandi Frantz takes minutes in meetings.



Equal representation is a key to creating a unified student body. Leading this year's Student Council was president Steve Corder, with the help of vice-president Wesley Anderson, secretary Sandi Frantz, and Celia Bennett acting as treasurer. Membership of the council consisted of representatives elected from each homeroom. Projects accomplished by the group included the Howdy Dance, Homecoming Dance, and Valentine's Dance. Sponsoring the council were Mrs. Odessa Coultas and Mrs. Mildred Washington.

Representatives Seek Participation

Through individual representation, the council seeks to produce well informed students. Each class elected two representatives to serve as a medium between the council and the student body. These eight representatives assisted the officers, as members of the executive board.

Other activities of the council included counting student opinion polls and distributing student directories.

UPPER RIGHT: Planning for an upcoming dance are freshmen representatives Susan Canavan and Glenda McInroe.

Cheerleaders Promote Enthusiasm

The combined efforts of sixteen enthusiastic cheerleaders played an important role in the encouragement of spirit at Western Hills. Elected by the student body in the preceding spring, the eight varsity cheerleaders led yells at pep rallies as well as at the athletic events throughout the year.

Participation in the cheerleader workshop at SMU in the summer resulted in the squad returning with the "spirit stick" for three consecutive superior performances.

Squad Encourages Support

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Thelma Cole, the cheerleaders conducted practice sessions during the week, planned skits for the pep rallies, and were in charge of selling ribbons.

The junior varsity squad, elected last spring, and the freshman cheerleaders, elected in the fall, devoted their time to the support of their respective teams.

Fifteen Governor's Board Senior, junior, and sophomore representatives to the Governor's Board were elected in the spring of 1972. The freshmen representatives were all elected in the fall, after the start of the school year.

"Power of the Paw" was the name members selected for the club in a special election in the fall.

BELOW: The Governor's Board served to guide and direct the club's activities all year.

National Honor Society Recognizes Students

Outstanding juniors and seniors worked together to help the school through the National Honor Society. Under the guidance of Mrs. Ruth Amend, Mrs. Frances Coon, Mrs. Katheryn Edwards, and Mrs. Alpha Wenzel, the club sponsored several activities. As projects, the organization collected labels for UNICEF, campaigned for the American Cancer Society, and worked in a community advertisement plan.

Band Enters Local Contests

Mr. Jerry Jones began his fifth year as director of the musical instrumentalists of W.H.H.S. The largest organization, the Marching Band, was made up of 96 people.

After weeks of summer practice in an enrichment program, the band eagerly awaited the Odessa trip. As money making projects to fund this trip, they sold doughnuts and sponsored a pizza dinner.

The band participated in various activities by playing in the State Fair of Texas, U.I.L., City Marching Contests, and marching in the Benbrook and Stock Show Parades; along with their usual football pep rallies and half-time performances.

During the spring semester, select students from the band were chosen to participate in the Symphonic Band by playing in concerts and school assemblies.

Combining individuals with their musical talent, was the job of the band's drum majors, majorettes, and representatives.

After weeks of summer practice, this year's drum majors: Relf Fenley and Steve Holton, and majorettes: Cindy Tilley, Kathryn Williams, and Dana Woods, were ready to lead the band through contests, special trips, parades, and football games.

Representation and communication were key words to the 72-73 Marching Band. Band president, Wally Jones and vice-president, Cody Maxwell, combined their efforts with the class representatives, Senior — George Fore, Junior — Lynda Tallant, Sophomore — Ken Davis, and Freshman — Quennion Echols, to assist Mr. Jerry Jones with rules and the organization of band students.

Intense Practice Leads to Better Performances

The ensemble of students and instruments, all center around some form of music, whether it be jazz, hard rock, blues, classical, or romantic. As a group of 24 selective students, the Stage Band played at the Tarleton State College Jazz Festival on January 27, and the Midwestern Jazz Festival held on February 3.

Sponsored by the Band Booster Club, the band entertained students at the Pizza Dinner.

Voices, Music Enlighten Student Life

Setting goals and standards is the first step toward accomplishment.

In the B-Band, students learned good form and technique while experimenting with various types of music. The B-Band was mainly a training band while the Symphonic Band entertained at various places during the year.

TOP: After hard work, the band is presented with a cake by Cody Maxwell, Steve Holton, and Wally Jones.

Whether developing the musical talents of individuals, or the whole group, Mrs. Jewell Kelly practiced daily with her 45 member Concert Choir for the annual Christmas program which featured a series of sacred Christmas music. They also participated in the production of the Spring musical, "South Pacific." As special events throughout the year, the choir gave a series of concerts to different schools, and sang in the Texas Wesleyan College Choral Festival in October.

Drama Club Encourages the Arts

Promoting, encouraging, and sponsoring the dramatic arts was the purpose of the Drama Club. Besides promoting local school drama and arts, the students worked toward creating a new image for the theater, and gave its members an opportunity to exercise their talents. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Juanita McCulloh, members visited rest homes and hospitals producing plays and monologues.

FTA Members Learn Teaching Skills

Educating tomorrow's students is the duty of our future teachers. Participation in the Future Teachers of America gave the experience needed for responsible leadership in tomorrow's classrooms. With the sponsorship of Mrs. Frances Coon, members of the chapter gained insight into today's teaching problems by aiding teachers in the area's elementary and secondary schools.

Promotion of cultural understanding is the prime goal of the language clubs. Under the guidance of Mrs. Carol Absher, French; Mrs. Brigitta Brandt, German; Mrs. Rebecca Tyndall, Latin; Miss Mary Rehm and Mrs. Carol Roberts, Spanish; and Mrs. Rebecca Stevenson, Russian; these groups sponsored many activities. Participating in a Novemberfest at the University of Texas at Arlington, German students won ribbons in many competitions. Latin members went to Leonard Middle School in Roman dress to present a Christmas program to the students. Spanish members sponsored a table at the Flea Market as a fund raising activity. The Russian students won the book drive by bringing the largest number of books for any class.

Students Promote Better Understanding

New to Western Hills this year was the Student Advisory Committee, an organization intended to help ease integration problems along with student grievances. The committee was funded by the Emergency School Assistance Program and had a membership limited to twelve students who were representative of the various ethnic groups in the school. The monthly meetings were sponsored by Mrs. Kathryn Edwards.

FHA Goes Co-Educational

Four chapters of the Future Homemakers of America had a total membership of over 250 students. The sponsors of the group were Mrs. Carol Feik, Mrs. Elise Ball, Miss Linda Nichols, and Mrs. Ruth Campbell. Through various projects and activities, the students worked to gain an appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking, to improve school and community and to become aware of the many opportunities available in the field of home economics.

Three Business Clubs Prepare Students for Future Jobs

Three organizations on campus prepare students for the business world. These are the Office Education Association, Distributive Education Clubs of America, and Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. DECA and VICA provide actual on the job experience, while OEA trains students at school for office work.

Reflecting an age of highly specialized fields, Western Hills offers clubs for the specially interested students. Participants in the science club gained an understanding of chemistry, physics, and biology through experimentation and field trips with the sponsorship of Mr. Robert Dixon. With the help of Mr. Claude Little and Mr. Lloyd Seely, members of the Western Hills Chess Club learned the technique of skillful chess playing by participating in chess tournaments.

Organizations aimed toward the benefit of mankind took the form of the Red Cross, Clean Environment, and Health Careers Clubs.

Sponsored by Mr. Danny Butler, Mrs. Mary Webb, and Mrs. Margaret Wilder, The Red Cross provided help for needy individuals. A food collection at Christmas and a clothing drive in January were projects tackled by the group.

The Clean Environment Club, sponsored by Mrs. Sharland Kirkpatrick, met on Wednesdays after school to discuss causes and effects of pollution control. In January, the group sponsored a paper drive to provide a bicycle rack for the school.

A new group this year, the Health Careers Club provided its members the opportunity to become familiar with health vocation requirements and jobs. The club also acquainted itself with local facilities in regard to community health. Mrs. Frances Lipscomb was the sponsor.

Extracurricular Clubs Create Interest

Among those organizations actively participated in by students, are three clubs outside of school supervision.

Under the leadership of TCU senior Ken Gire, Young Life Campaign began its third year at Western Hills. The group held weekly meetings, as well as Campaigners, a smaller Bible study. Young Life also sponsored a ski trip and several retreats throughout the year.

Tri-Hi-Y, affiliated with the YMCA, was sponsored by Miss Anne Kemp. The club met weekly to organize and participate in service projects.

Industrial Arts instructor Mr. Don Smith was in charge of the Western Hills Rodeo Club. With a membership of fifty, the group held their own rodeo in November, as well as visited several other rodeos.

Providing an outlet for the endeavors of journalism classes, the Mountain Line served as a medium through which school news reached the student body. In its fourth year of publication, the newspaper came out on a monthly basis. Reporting activities which took place around the school, the paper also published editorials, photography, and cartoons. Advertisements, solicited by staff members, provided the financial sources for the paper.

Advisor Mrs. Melba Jackson concentrated her efforts on exposing the staff to new journalism techniques. Co-editors for the first semester were Pat Boles and Larry Cook. Kerry Hoefner assumed the latter's position for the second semester.

CATAMOUNT Reflects Memories of Past Year

Under the new sponsorship of Mr. J. Eric Mann, the production on the 1973 CATAMOUNT began far back into the summer. During July, three staff members and business manager Mrs. Sharland Kirkpatrick participated in a yearbook workshop at Texas Tech and returned with an award for best introductory section.

During the first weeks of the fall, co-editors Nancy Gregg and Norma McNiel directed the 21-member staff in the selection of theme, cover, and dedicatee, as well as advised staff members on layout design. Working late into the night at the school was typical in the mad rush for deadlines.

This year's staff was also in charge of making I.D. pictures and handling favorite elections.

In December, it was announced that the 1972 CATAMOUNT was named co-champion in the Texas High School Press Association competition.

EXPRESSIONS

Twins Dean and Sandi Frantz were chosen Mr. and Miss WHHS 1973. President of the senior class, Dean has served on the Spirit Club Governor's Board and was elected junior favorite last year. Having previously played basketball in high school, he is an important part of the track team. Dean attends both Young Life and Campaigners. He also enjoys swimming and waterskiing.

Sandi is secretary of the student body and also attends Young Life. She held the office of student body treasurer and was on the Spirit Club Governor's Board in previous years. Sandi was elected Miss Spirit 1972 and in February was chosen by the basketball team as their queen. She is an honor student and like her brother, Dean, finds enjoyment in water sports.

Randy is very sports-minded. A varsity baseball player, he is also a member of the football team. Randy was elected Mr. Spirit for this year and is a student council member.

A member of the Catamount staff, finalist Norman Buckley (below left) is involved in Young Life and Campaigners. Norman's interests include handball, swimming, camping, and skiing.

Finalist Miriam Slaughter (below center) enjoys listening to good music. She likes dancing, meeting new people, and attending athletic activities.

Varsity baseball player Jim Davis (bottom) was elected class favorite last year. With an interest in golf and bowling, Jim also participates in both Young Life and Campaigners.

To live over the richness of life,
Never fully lived;
To see it all, as from a window that looks
Upon a garden of flowers
and distant hills,
From which your broken
body is barred . . .
O life! O unutterable beauty,
To leave you, knowing that you were never loved enough.
Wishing to live you all over
With all the soul's wise will!

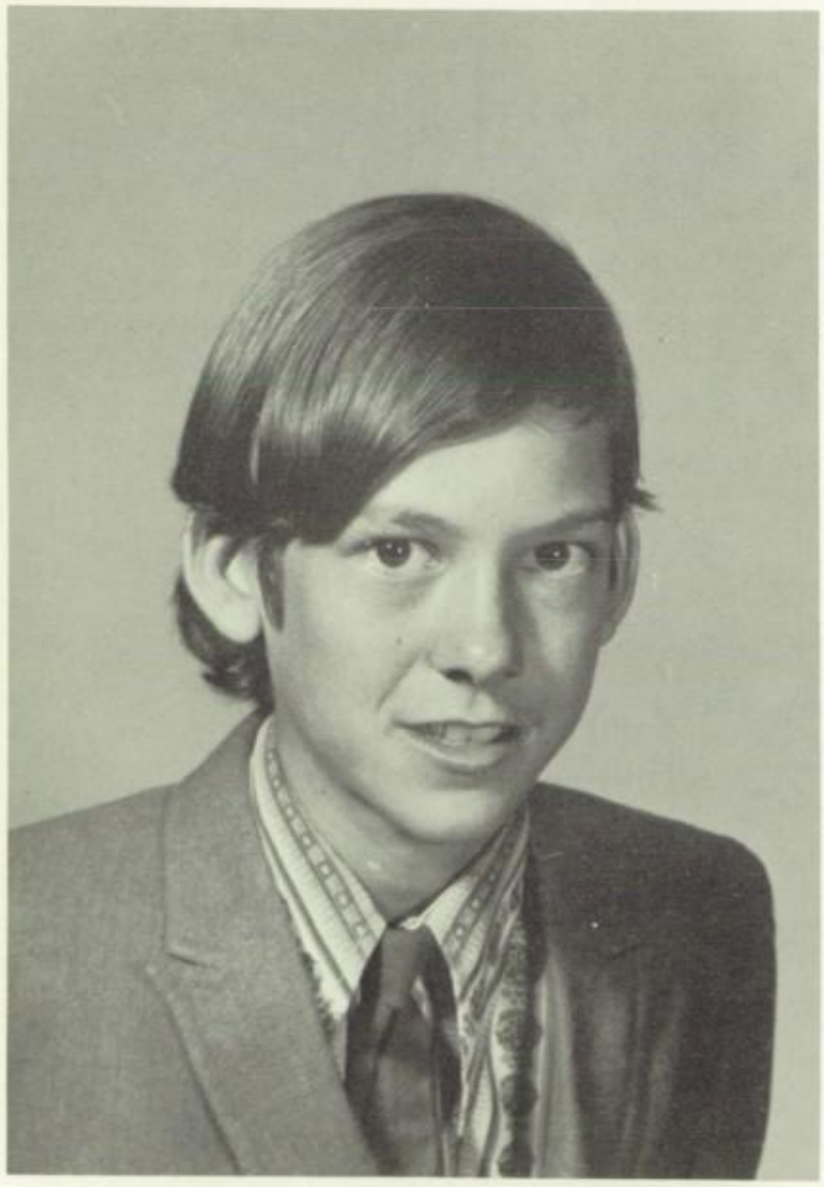
Edgar Lee Masters



In Memoriam . . . Jeff Smith

Robby Gower and Konnie Karnes (left) were selected this year's sophomore favorites. Robby, an honor student, was a favorite finalist last year. A participant in the Spirit Club, he is the sophomore representative to the governor's board. Robby is interested in all sports, including hunting and fishing.

A member of the student council and an officer in Tri-Hi-Y, Konnie was elected girl favorite. She also participated in the Pan-Am Club and Young Life activities. Konnie enjoys horseback riding, dancing, and tennis.

Finalist Kristi Dodson (right) is a member of Tri-Hi-Y and is on the student council. She participates in Young Life and is interested in modeling, tennis, and swimming.

Honor student Patti Montgomery (top right) is a participant in Young Life and Tri-Hi-Y activities also. She enjoys horseback riding, tennis, and water sports.

Finalist John Dear (right center) is a participant in track and football. He is interested in motorcycling and enjoys waterskiing as well.

Layne Beavers (bottom) is a member of the swim team. His favorite hobby being football, he also participates in the Spirit Club.

Registration Sparks New School Year

August 22 and 23, were days of renewing acquaintances and meeting new teachers as students registered for classes at Western Hills. Seniors and juniors were the first to register followed by the sophomores and freshmen. A larger selection of courses was offered this year including reading, Russian, and African studies. August 24 marked the first day of school and the end of summer activities.

Howdy Dance Welcomes Newcomers

To begin the year's activities the Student Council sponsored a dance to welcome all new and returning students. The gathering held on September 8, in the cafeteria featured the music of Thanatopsis. Refreshments and chaperones were provided by the P.T.A. During this time many old friends got together and some new friendships were begun.

Cougars Travel Road to Odessa

A trip to Odessa served as a new trip and adventure for the students of Western Hills. Friday morning, September 15, two Spirit Club sponsored buses left school and headed toward the game in Odessa. Students took sack lunches and ate at a roadside park. Arriving in Big Springs everyone ate hamburgers prepared in advance for them, then went on to the game. The result was defeat but the spirit remained high. The tired students then loaded the buses for a six hour ride home which included a stop at the local Dairy Queen.

Shick Test Offered for First Time

On September 18, the students outside the cafeteria began rolling up their sleeves with fear in their eyes. Once inside, they were given shick tests, for T.B. by members of the health board. The test was optional and parent permission forms were required. After it was all over most students found that it was not as bad as they had expected.

Decorations, Parade Build Spirit Week

Spirit was aroused on Monday as hall decorations began the week of October 9-14. Tennis shoes were worn on Tuesday with the additional sale of green and gold shoe strings. Wednesday was selected as pigtail-lollipop day, while Thursday resided with a balloon sale, and Friday was the pep rally.

Preparations for the float began on Saturday morning and the results of the students efforts came to an end that afternoon with Western Hills placing third in the Benbrook Parade.

Homecoming Spirit Increases

Beginning the year's Homecoming activities, the traditional decorations appeared and provided homeroom competition. Homeroom 401 and 402 combined their efforts in the library and came out with first place. On October 27, green and gold blended throughout the school as mums and streamers were displayed by the girls. In addition, the Homecoming pep rally was held with the presentation of the Football Queen and court. Climaxing the week was the anticipation of the football game and Homecoming dance.

Dance Unites Old, New Students

The night of October 28, brought Homecoming week officially to a close. The dance provided a time for exes to return and see old friends as everyone moved to the music of Lead Stamp. Something new was added to this year's dance with presentation of Paul Phillips as Football King.

Students Predict Presidential Election

In the midst of the presidential campaigns, Western Hills had its chance to vote in a mock election. Through the efforts of The Young Democrats and TeenAge Republicans, both sides of the ticket were equally represented. With the campaigns ending on November 1, the students cast their votes with the outcome being the re-election of President Nixon.

"747 Cougar Place" Takes Off

The third annual Cougar Capers got off the ground this year with daytime shows December 7 and 8, and a night performance on December 8. This year's show consisted of various acts ranging from folk singing to a magic act. After a successful hijacking the faculty joined forces to present a surprise ending.

Programs Promote Christmas Cheer

Combining the forces of the band, chorus, and drama department the spirit of Christmas was conveyed to the students. During period one on December 18, the seniors and juniors attended the program, while the sophomores and freshmen saw it during period 6. The presentation began with songs by the chorus directed by Mrs. Jewell Kelly. The band followed with a medley under the direction of Mr. Jerry Jones. Members of the drama department expressed their interpretation of "The Night Before Christmas" for the enjoyment of the audience.

Lodello Sets Mood for Valentine's Dance

"Love is an Opening Door" served as the theme for the 1973 Valentine's Dance, held on Saturday, February 17. This year's decorations provided more of an atmosphere, with tables covered in white table cloths set off with red hearts encircling the room.

As announced, this year's class favorites were seniors Debbie Bailiff and Sandy Ballard, juniors Marla Ball and Randy Higdon, sophomores Konnie Karnes and Robby Gower, and freshmen Sheri Montgomery and Dan Terrell. The Spirit Club introduced Terry Kelly and Randy Higdon as Mr. and Miss Spirit with nominees Wesley Anderson, Dean Frantz, Konnie Karnes, and Beale Tolbert.

Students Involved in School Life

Western Hills students always find time to support their basketball team during the middle of other activities.

The seniors began magazine sales early in February, trying to reach their goal of $9,000. The selection of class favorites were also announced during the month.

Science Projects were constructed by the chemistry classes along with the Clean Environment Club sponsoring a paper drive for the purpose of buying a bike rack.

Planned Events Benefit Students

This year the G.D.R.A. girls took an interest in track. Decorations were put up every week for the boys, with the exception of one week when the girls walked each boy to class.

College night and our new leadership class were set up to help the students of Western Hills. The history of rock was explained in a special program on March 2.

Basketball Team Honors Sandi Frantz

The basketball team announced Sandi Frantz, as their 1973 queen, at the faculty-student basketball game on March 6. Co-captains Sandy Ballard and Jimmy Stevens presented the queen before the student body. The Old Crows took on the Spring Chickens during second and sixth periods.

Shady Oaks Sets Stage For Backwards Dance

On the night of March 9, students of Western Hills met at Shady Oaks Country Club for a backwards dance. The dance was sponsored by the senior girls and took months of planning. Money was raised by various projects and donations. The girls and their dates danced to music provided by Big Spring.

The Cougars kicked off their 5th season against O. D. Wyatt at Clark Stadium on September 7. At the end of four quarters of defensive struggle, the Cougs were on the short end of a 13-6 score. The next week Hills traveled to Odessa and met the Permian Panthers. The state-ranked West Texans finally wore down the Cougars, coasting to a 46-0 victory. A last second field goal by Eastern Hills disappointed the Cats for the third straight week as their bid for a tie ended in a 10-7 defeat.

Varsity Improves Record

On October 19 the Cougs braved the chilly weather to battle Arlington Heights at Farrington Field. After a see-saw struggle that saw Zane Kent pass for a season high of 187 yards, victory barely eluded the Cougars 28-22.

Homecoming, October 27, Clark Field. Western Hills vs. Paschal. The mighty cats pull out all the stops, and completely demolish the Panthers 27-6 in a rewarding and well deserved victory.

In a game that never saw the Hills offense get untracked, the Southwest Rebels defeated the Cougars 13-0 at Clark Field. On a cold, drizzly night at Handley Field the Cougars steamrolled the Carter Eagles 33-13. The Cats clawed out 288 yards total offense, while stopping numerous Carter attempts. In the final game of the 1972 season, the Cougars met North Side at Farrington Field. The Steers proved too much, as the disappointed Cougs suffered a 20-0 setback, finishing their season with a 4-6 record, 2-3 in district.

Freshmen Dominate Team Performance

Competitive spirit ran high on the Western Hills Cross Country team of 1972. Entering various meets, they remained in contention in all of them until the finish. This year's team boasted one outstanding individual runner, Mike Carr, who placed fifth or better in every meet in which he participated.

The freshman Cross Country team completed a highly successful season by taking the city crown. Their success gave hope of varsity improvement next season.

Afternoon Workouts

Each passing year has seen Western Hills Tennis Teams grow in members and ability. Hard workouts were commonplace for the two teams. The girls, coached by Mrs. Lea Martin, and the boys, coached by Mr. Charles Hall, played in various area high school matches and participated in several tournaments, including Tyler and the City Meet.

Volleyball Team Scores Wins

Under the leadership of Mrs. Lea Martin, the girls' volleyball team participated in several tournaments. Wins were scored against Arlington Heights, Eastern Hills, Dunbar, and O. D. Wyatt. Consisting of seven players, the team practiced regularly after school. In February, the team won first place in a tournament at Southwest High School.

TOP: Delores Moody, Linda Alexander, and Weslynn Walker watch as Anita Blaylock gets ready to serve.

Golfers Tee Off for Tournament Play

Sponsored by Mr. Robert Dixon, the golf team prepared daily for tournaments by playing at municipal golf courses. Practices for the team were rotated between Boaz, Rockwood, Meadowbrook, and Pecan Valley courses. The WHHS golfers won the Arlington tournament in December and returned with the Team Low-ball from the Abilene tournament in February. The team also participated in the Southwest Recreational, Wichita Falls, and Brownwood tournaments.

Aleck,
You are a real pretty girl with a great personality. We've had lots of fun clowning around and getting drunk in Houston. Stay my friend.
Paul

Alick, well here I am PIGMY putting my two cents worth in. I will tell you we have had good times this year and I will always remember them and especially Houston. Just think if we had never got drunk me and ole Bill Loy would never be together right now and plus some help from you which I am very very thankful for. Good Luck next yeah and the years to come in the RODEO'S and next year we will go to the Finals and win! Also good luck with all those cowboys and the right one will come along like it did with me.

Love your faithful
friend, companion,
BARREL RACER, and fellow CHASS sister
